Three-day festival of women directors' films begins

FILM FESTIVAL

UNB

A three-day film festival – featuring six movies made by women film directors – started on Saturday in Dhaka ahead of International Women's Day.

Kohinoor Akhter Suchanda's "Hazar Bochor Dhore," Nargis Akhter's "Meghla Akash," Samia Zaman's "Rani Kurhir Baki Itihash," Moushumi's "Kokhono Megh Kokhono Brikhti," Shah newaz Kakoli's "Uttarer Shur" and Nanziba Khan's "The Wanted Twin" will be screened at the festival.

State Minister for Women and Children Affairs Fazilatunnesa Indira inaugurated the festival at Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy.

Bangladesh International Film Movement has organised the festival.

While inaugurating the festival, Indira called on the entrepreneurs to step forward along with the government to encourage more women in making films.
